

Section Review 3-2 New England Colonies

All people – who were they and why are they important.

Quiz on

What were the reasons for starting the colony?

How did these colonies expand and survive?

Two steps colonists took to form a representative government.

Hint: Documents

Make sure you know who settled what colony and why.

How did the colonists survive? What did the natives do to help them...be specific.

What conflicts, with both the natives and among themselves, did these people experience?

Go online to my website and look for the reading, "Salem Witch Trials". You can also use information from your reading in Mrs. Schlessinger's class. Using information from your text (bottom of pg.80-81) and reading, be prepared to answer this question:

Describe the attitudes of those who settled the colonies toward those who thought differently.

Targets: 6-8 sentences, indent, facts to support your topic sentence.

Section Review 3-2 New England Colonies

All people – who were they and why are they important.

Quiz on

What were the reasons for starting the colony?

How did these colonies expand and survive?

Two steps colonists took to form a representative government.

Hint: Documents

Make sure you know who settled what colony and why.

How did the colonists survive? What did the natives do to help them...be specific.

What conflicts, with both the natives and among themselves, did these people experience?

Go online to my website and look for the reading, "Salem Witch Trials". You can also use information from your reading in Mrs. Schlessinger's class. Using information from your text (bottom of pg.80-81) and reading, be prepared to answer this question:

Describe the attitudes of those who settled the colonies toward those who thought differently.

Targets: 6-8 sentences, indent, facts to support your topic sentence.