

Section Review 3-3 Middle Colonies

All people – who were they and why are they important.

What were the colonies in this region and what were the reasons for starting each colony?

Describe how these colonies were governed.

All terms in both content and academic vocabulary

Create a diagram like the one on page 72. Read the directions and be prepared to explain why these two colonies split to form 4 colonies.

Make sure you understand the difference between a proprietary colony and a royal colony.

Make sure you know who the different groups of people were in each area and why they chose to settle in that area.

What was the "Restoration" and why was it important to the colonies?

Quiz on

Section Review 3-3 Middle Colonies

All people – who were they and why are they important.

What were the colonies in this region and what were the reasons for starting each colony?

Describe how these colonies were governed.

All terms in both content and academic vocabulary

Create a diagram like the one on page 72. Read the directions and be prepared to explain why these two colonies split to form 4 colonies.

Make sure you understand the difference between a proprietary colony and a royal colony.

Make sure you know who the different groups of people were in each area and why they chose to settle in that area.

What was the "Restoration" and why was it important to the colonies?

Quiz on
